SOURCE GUIDE

Dear valued Agency Partners,

On behalf of our Branding Experts™ I am pleased to launch this years Holiday Gift Source Guide for the browsing pleasure of our current and prospective clients. This useful document serves as a supplement to the nearly 15,000 carefully curated products featured within our digital platform. I encourage you to visit our website regularly for new product offerings and up to date information as we navigate a Holiday Season which is sure to keep us on our toes!

The last couple of years have presented unique challenges many of which have been embraced as opportunities to review and hone our processes internally. Notwithstanding the significant time, effort and advanced planning which have been invested into ensuring every project delivers successfully the reality is there are going to be headwinds and circumstances which may create exceptions in production, fulfillment and logistics. Now more than ever it is important we collaborate early and plan ahead to ensure Holiday gifts are delivered just in time.

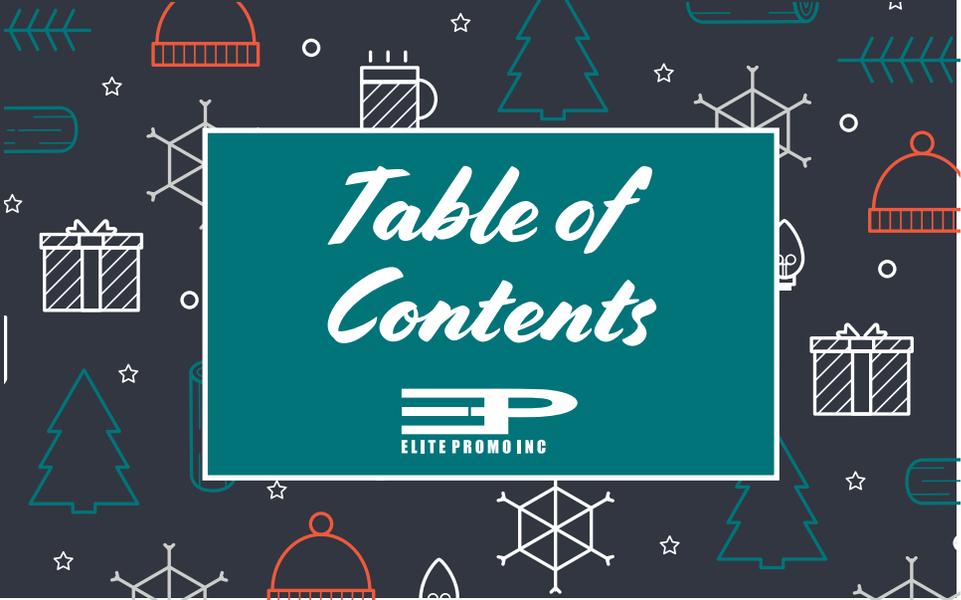

Our Corporate Branding Experts™ are available to assist with in stock product suggestions. One of the outcomes we are most proud of is having kept our team in place at full capacity even in the most challenging times presented recently. We recognize the trust you place in us and you can breathe a sigh of relief knowing the same experienced Project Management team you may have collaborated with in years past remain at your service ready to execute with masterful precision!

Most importantly, I hope this Holiday season brings you, your family, friends and colleagues an abundance of joy and happiness as we look ahead to the New Year.

Sincerely,

Derek R. Haskins - President and Chief Branding Officer™
